Re: In Re: Terrorist Attacks on September 11, 2001, 03 MDL 1570 (GBD) (FM)

Dear Judge Maas:

Plaintiffs write to respectfully request a three-page extension on the limit of letter briefs, for purposes of filing a Motion to Compel as to defendant Dallah Avco. The Motion to Compel addresses separate privilege objections Dallah Avco has raised on the basis of (1) provisions of its purported contracts with the Saudi Presidency of Civil Aviation ("PCA"); and (2) the provisions of Saudi Royal Decree M-35, relating to the treatment of classified information. Plaintiffs believe it would be more efficient to address these two objections in a single motion, rather than filing separate briefs as to each. To that end, plaintiffs respectfully request an extension of the page limit for letter motions to compel, from 12 pages to 15 pages.

Plaintiffs have conferred with counsel for Dallah Avco concerning this request, and Dallah Avco has no objection to an extension of the page limit, provided it receives a corresponding extension of the page limit for its response brief.
